

Don't Start

by Nick P
lyrics by Nick Parton

I don't know if I'll be starting again
Good god, will I be starting again?
Could I?
Can I?

Would I love again
Against your wish?
Would you move first because of it?
Wait

If you throw me off
And I throw off you
Would the world smell new or used?
The deepest, darkest, richest dust
Since the time we made of us
Will you?
Will I?

I wish you wouldn't raid all my thoughts
I wish that I could say I cannot be bought

I wish you wouldn't raid all my thoughts
I wish that I could say you cannot be fought

And I worry for you
More than me
I want you to know I'd never retreat
If you needed my hand
